

TO THE HOMELESS.

Chicago Tribune (1860-1872); Oct 11, 1871;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Tribune (1849-1988)

pg. 0_2

TO THE HOMELESS.

The headquarters of the General Relief Committee are at the Congregational Church, corner of Washington and Ann streets. All of the Public School buildings, as well as the Churches, are open for the shelter of persons who do not find other accommodations. When food is not found at such buildings, it will be provided by the committee on application at its headquarters.

W. MASON, Mayor.

J. J. McAVOY, South Division.

N. K. FAIRBANK, South Division.

W. B. BATEHAM, West Division.

ORRIN E. MOORE, West Division.

M. A. DEVINE, North Division.

JOHN HERTUNG, North Division.

General Relief Committee.

C. T. HOTCHKISS, Secretary.

Chicago, Oct. 10, 1871.

Depots have been established at the West Side Rink, corner Ada and Randolph streets, at Nos. 50 and 52 North Canal street, and also (probably) at Seavern's warehouse, corner Clark and Fourteenth streets, for the purpose of receiving and distributing provisions, clothing, and other necessities to such as present orders from the Relief Committee. Persons in pressing need of food need not necessarily present orders. By order of the RELIEF COMMITTEE.

The homeless and hungry can find food and shelter and an abundance of water, at either of the public school buildings, and at all the churches. The Jesuit Church and college building and school house, on South Morgan street, have been opened for the lodging of those unable to find other ac-

The Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, corner of Peoria and Washington streets; the Congregational Church, corner of Green and Peoria streets; the Church of the Redeemer, corner of Sangamon and Washington, and Congregational Church, corner of Ann street, are all open to the homeless for food and shelter.

The old Soldiers' Home, on Douglas place, is open for the reception of all who may be homeless in the South Division.

An intelligence office for the lost is to be located at 7 o'clock this morning at the corner of Twelfth and State streets.

All organizations may, through their respective committees, draw for supplies on the committee in charge of the same at the various depots. They will please advise said committee of the names of persons authorized to draw supplies.

The general headquarters for supplies is at Nos. 50 and 52 South Canal street.

A committee of the citizens of Cleveland, consisting of N. B. Payne, W. T. Warner, Colonel W. H. Maynard, David Price, Mr. Mason, Mr. Alford, has arrived in Chicago, bringing with them from five to eight car loads of provisions.

Three car loads of provisions, from an unknown source, arrived on yesterday, on the Michigan Southern railway.